8. Rights and Responsibilities - Things our Children Need

- Our children need to experience their homes and schools as places where they are treated fairly.
- Our children need to be protected from racism, sexism, and other forms of intolerance.
- Our children need to be shown how they can talk back to people who exclude them or take away their rights. They need to be able to do this without becoming violent.
- Our children need to be given responsibilities at home where they are safe to make mistakes.
- Our children need to be valued for the skills and abilities they have and offered opportunities to use these for their benefit and the benefit of others.
